CHWARAE

Gan Elgan Rhys

Darn o theatr newydd sy'n cael ei ddatblygu'n gydweithredol gyda theuluoedd ac artistiaid proffesiynol ar gyfer plant 4 - 6 oed a'u hoedolion.

Mae'r artist Elgan Rhys wedi bod yn archwilio pwysigrwydd chwarae ym mywydau plant ac oedolion ac mae'r gwaith-ar-y-gweill yma yn dathlu cymhlethdodau'r sut, ble, pam, gyda phwy a'r beth yw chwarae yn ein byd hynod brysur. Mae CHWARAE yn rhan o raglen Platfform gan Theatr Iolo mewn parrneriaeth â Pontio sy’n cefnogi artistiaid sy’n dod i’r amlwg i ddatblygu theatr a digwyddiadau i blant, pobl ifanc a theuluoedd, mewn partneriaeth â chanolfannau celfyddydol a theatrau.

Bydd y prosiect cydweithredol hwn yn cyrraedd penllanw gyda pherfformiad i deuluoedd yn Pontio ar Fai 19eg am 11.30am a 2.30pm.

Mae Platfform yn derbyn nawdd gan Gyngor Celfyddydau Cymru a sefydliad Esmée Fairbairn.

AM YR ARDDANGOSFA

Mae’r gosodiad gelf yma wedi’i greu gan Eva Lin Jerkovic, artist a myfyrwraig o gwrs Dylunio Cynnyrch Prifysgol Bangor. Dyma ymateb Eva i syniadau, sylwadau a chwestiynau’r artist Elgan Rhys a’r teuluoedd sydd ynghlwm â phrosiect theatr gydweithredol newydd a chyffrous; CHWARAE.

CHWARAE

By Elgan Rhys

CHWARAE is a new piece of theatre being developed collaboratively at Pontio with families and professional artists for those aged 4 - 6 and their adults.

Artist Elgan Rhys has been exploring the importance play has in the lives of children and adults alike and this work-in-progress celebrates the complexities of the how, where, why, with who and what of play in our ever-busy world...

This project is part of is part Theatr Iolo’s Platfform programme in partnership with Pontio, supporting emerging artists develop theatre for children and young people in partnership with arts centres and theatres.

This collaborative project will culminate in performances for families in Pontio on the 19th of May at 11.30am & 2.30pm.

Platfform receives support from Arts Council of Wales and the Esmée Fairbairn Foundation.
